

Web Design Project

“Active over 75s”

Overall Summary

For the purpose of this project I chose to do design my website for the active over 75s. My site is designed to be for a sports club named “Active Over 75’s”.

The site has 12 pages:

1. Homepage
2. Events Page*
3. Community Page*
4. Sports Page*
5. About Page
6. Membership Page*
7. Contact Page*
8. FAQ Page
9. Sitemap Page
10. Message.php
11. Welcome.php
12. Newsletter.php

The font on the pages has been kept large and I tried to keep the site as clutter free as possible, this was to simplify the site for the target audience (the over seventy-fives).

Easy navigation and consumption were a big focus to allow it to be easily navigated by non tech savvy users.

Navigation

The website is easily navigated. The header provides links to all pages as does the footer.

Pages denoted by the * also contain a side bar, fixed at the top of the page to allow users to quickly access the content they wish to see rather than scroll down the length of the page.

I also included a sitemap page to give users a breakdown of pages and their content.

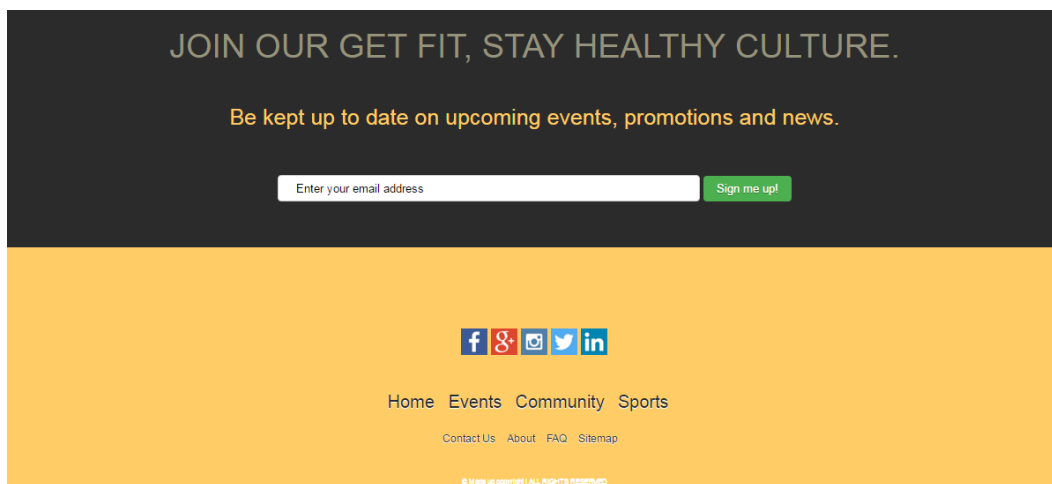

Header

The header acts as an easy to access navigation feature and title to the site. The centrepiece of the header is the logo which contains the company name. The navigation bar provides links to the main pages of the site, it also keeps track of what page the user is on by changing background colour, as demonstrated above with membership.

In the top-right corner of the header there is links to the auxiliary pages of the site

Footer

The footer is located at the bottom of all the sites pages. Again it allows for easy navigation to the sites pages through links provided on the bottom of the footer.

There is a banner of social media icons which would act as links to the sites social media pages (If they existed). The bottom of footer contains a fake copyright banner. The top of the footer allow the user to provide their email address to be added to a mailing list for the sites newsletter.

Page Summaries

Newsletter.php

When the user fills out the form for the newsletter they are brought to Newsletter.php where they are thanked for joining the mail list

Thank you for you for joining our mailing list!

Homepage

The home page is very basic, there is a brief overview of what the club is about. There is also a large copy of the clubs logo.

There is a gallery of images that would ideally be of the club, its facilities and its members.

Below the gallery I provided a few links to the contact, membership and about page

Events

The centrepiece of the events page is the timetable of events, I made this through the use of a table. It provides user with links to information on each activity and also a graphical representation of when events are on.

Below the timetable I have a few short paragraphs describing other events and what they entail, I also have a paragraph telling users if they wish to suggest an activity to go to the contact page (which I have linked).

Community

The community page is meant to describe the non-sport and more social events the take place in the club such as a bingo night and book club. The page consists of a paragraph on the community of the club, a banner of logos and then a paragraph on each of the activities on what they entail.

Sports

The sports page goes through the sporting activities of the club. It contains a section for each available sport. In this section there is a title, a picture and a paragraph describing the benefits of the sport and when it takes place.

Hill Walking

Walking is a perfect way to start exercising. It requires no special equipment, aside from a pair of comfortable walking shoes, and can be done anywhere. Hill walking has the added advantage of strengthening joints and legs. It also allows for variance to the walks and beautiful scenery. Our hill walks will take place in varying locations, the location of the hill walks will be posted on the noticeboard in the club one week before the walk is scheduled to take place. Members will meet at the entrance of the club and a mini bus will transport them to the start of the hill walk, this same bus will then be waiting at the end of the walk to bring them back.

Thursday: 12:00
Friday: 06:00, 12:00

About

The about page sets out briefly what the club is all about, it provides an overview, a mission statement, an image of the supposed clubhouse and then links to the membership page and contact page where users can go for more information.

Our Aims:

- To improve quality of life through exercise and fun
- To create a sense of community
- To give encouragement and support
- To allow our members to set goals and achieve them

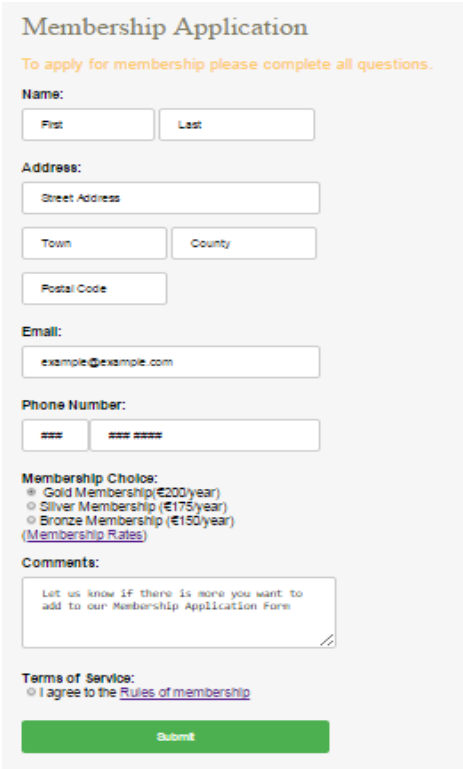

Membership

The membership page provides user with all the information they will require to become members of the club. It includes a Membership application form, a Membership Contract and then the different membership rates and what they entail.

The membership application allows user to apply for membership online, the form asks for information such as name, address and what membership type the user would be interested in.

The membership contract sets out the rules and regulations of the club, to fill out the membership application the user must agree to the terms of the contract (which is linked in the form).

The final feature of the page is the membership rates, these are laid out as unordered lists, and they outline the benefits of each membership type and also the costs.
